EBERHARD CONFESSES.

August Eberhard confessed in full yesterday afternoon at the Hackensack, N. J., police station, that he murdered and robbed his aunt, Ottillie Eberhard, to secure the $2,450 she had with her so he could marry Miss Caroline Wade, an actress, of New York. He had wounded himself in the leg with a pistol bullet, and when arrested, near Paterson, N. J., yesterday morning, told a story of being shot by robbers at the time his aunt was killed, but weakened under examination by the police and made the confession.

Eberhard, who was engaged to the cousin he tried to kill when he shot his aunt dead in a lonely spot outside of Hackensack last Saturday night, said that he was in love with the actress, but that he had not enough money to marry her, and had planned the murder of his aunt to get it.

Showing little or no emotion, the former grocer's clerk told a story of wandering for four days as far north as Toronto and as far west as Chicago, finally returning in New Jersey, near the scene of his crime, Wednesday morning. He also disclosed the hiding place of the money he stole from his aunt's dead body, and a cigar box, containing all the money with the exception of about $100, was found yesterday afternoon.

Miss Wade is at present playing with the Six Blonde Typewriters Company at Morrison's Theater, Rockaway Beach. She she was asked last night what she knew of Eberhard and his attentions to her.

"I cannot tell what all this story of his means," she said. "I never heard of the man or saw him. I do not know him. What he has said about being an admirer of mine is absolutely false."

"I will have Eberhard indicted at once," said Prosecutor Koester today. "He will be tried within two weeks. As the case is practically complete against him, I shall present it in four or five hours and the whole affair should not take more than one day to finish. Police in Chicago are seeking William Berkman, who is supposed to have aided in luring the two women to America."

"E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill.—Gentlemen—In 1897 I had a disease of the stomach and bowels. In the spring of 1902 I bought a bottle of Kodol and the benefit I received all the gold of Georgia could not buy. May you live long and prosper. Yours very truly C. N. Cornell, Roding, Ga., Aug., 27, 1906" Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

Kodol will without doubt help anyone who has stomach disorders or stomach troubles Take Kodol today and continue it for the short time that is necessary to give you complete relief. Kodol is sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

SHOT BY REJECTED SUITOR.

Miss Amanda Morse, a pretty 19-year old girl, who lives with her father, Thomas O. Morse, in Norfolk, was shot down on Campostella bridge last night by Benjamin F. Gilbert, aged 20, whose advances she rejected. A mob of 500 threatened to lynch Gilbert. Policeman Powers, who had the prisoner in charge, drew his pistol to keep the crowd in check.

Miss Morse was of a party of six young men and women who walked out on the bridge between 9 and 10 o'clock. Gilbert was seen to follow them. When the party stopped he took a position not far distant, calling Miss Morse to come to him. The young woman walked almost up to him and then turned as if to return to her companions. Then it was that Gilbert drew a pistol and fired twice, one of the balls taking affect in the victim's back the other in her side.

The three young men of the party grabbed Gilbert, who threw his pistol into the river. Policeman Powers soon arrived and placed him under arrest. In the crowd that soon collected, was the father of Miss Morse, who made a desperate effort to get at Gilbert.

Gilbert took his arrest coolly, asking for a cigarette while waiting for the patrol wagon. He said he shot the girl because she refused to marry him.

Miss Morse was desperately wounded, and her chances for recovery are slim.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to W. N. B. Byrne and Florence Byrne, both of Arcola.

VACATION.

This is the glad vacation time,
When dainty Doris rests
She's staying at a beach hotel,
With some six hundred guests.
She golfs, and swims, and drives and walks.
All day without a stop,
And every night she flirts till twelve,
Or dances at a hop.

She's having just a quiet time
To rest her tired brain,
Her work all through the college year,
You know, was such a strain!
But now she's resting—going without sleep,
As all girls ought to do.
She's up each day at eight o'clock,
And getst to bed at two.

How blessed is vacation, when
Your brain is tired out,
To rest your nerves, and give you calm,
And make you strong and stout.
And Doris will return refreshed,
Her brown eyes bright and clear,
To look ahead to peaceful days
Of rest another year!

LOWER PRICES ON BACON.—Old Missouri Hams, 16c; Mild Cured Hams, 16c; Breakfast Strips, 16c. J. C. MILBURN

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 24, 1908.

In a letter received by Governor Swanson yesterday attention is called by the State Department to a protest made by the Italian ambassador against the Richmond law, which he understands, prohibits Italians from conducting saloons or acting as bartenders. Secretary Root in the letter calls attention to the treaty of 1871 with Italy, which stipulates that citizens of that country shall have the same right to do business as is enjoyed by American citizens. Governor Swanson at once collected the ordinances and the State laws and forwarded them to the Secretary of State at Washington, for the Italian ambassador. The ordinances of the city require that no woman or minor shall be allowed to engage in the liquor business, and the State laws provide that only registered voters shall be allowed to engage in the business or serve liquor to customers. Of course the Italian ambassador can find no fault with this law.

Mr. Roosevelt in his Newport, R. I., speech on Wednesday said "one unforgivable offense in any man is to hit soft. War will only be excusable if the nation intends to hammer its opponent until that opponent quits fighting." Still Mr. Roosevelt intervened to stop Japan from harming Russia. He also said: "If we have a coast defense navy only we had better at once turn over the Panama canal to some stronger and broader nation give up Hawaii, give up Porto Rico, give up Alaska." Yet the country has held Alaska for over a quarter of a century and when it had scarcely any navy at all. Mr. Roosevelt has imbibed the idea that a modern politician cannot afford to be consistent.

That federal supervision of railroads will come in the near future is the opinion expressed by Chairman Knapp, of the interstate commerce commission. He believes that investment will be in increasing measure substituted for speculation in securities, and that as this tendency develops there also will be a growing insistence on governmental supervision of the capitalization and accounting of great corporations as will presently compel legislation along these lines. These views are very similar to those expressed by Mr. Bryan in his Madison Square Garden speech on his return from his trip around the world.

Judge Martin, of the Court of Law and Chancery, in Norfolk, yesterday handed down his decision interpreting the word "personal" as it applies to the payment of poll tax as a condition precedent to voting. According to the decision the word means that the poll tax payer must pay the tax to the treasurer in bodily presence. This unquestionably was the intention of those who framed the capitation payment clause in the constitution.

The president of the International Paper Company says a cut in the wages of employes on August 1, ranging from 2 to 10 per cent., is probable on account of the present business depression and because of the fact that wages have been on a high basis during the last year. This does not comport with the prosperous times which the republican leaders say are prevailing at this time, especially with the protected industries.

Mr. Taft, bringing with him his speech of acceptance to be revised by President Roosevelt, arrived at Oyster Bay last night. He went directly to Sagamore Hill, where the President and Secretary Root, who had been asked to take a hand in criticising the speech, were awaiting him. Should the speech not suit Mr. Roosevelt it is believed that by the time it is given to the public Mr. Taft will not recognize it as his own effort.

The British government is taking up the campaign against the American meat combine seriously, and a parliamentary committee has been appointed to see to what extent prices are controlled. If the British government succeeds in bringing the American meat trust to book, it will accomplish more than the United States government has been able to do.

Eight West Point cadets, two of them first-class men and the rest third-class men, at the Military Academy, including one from Virginia, have been dismissed for hazing. This action serves the men perfectly right. They knew the regulations and having wilfully violated them they have only themselves to blame for their disgrace.

Mr. Roosevelt has directed Attorney General Bonaparte to proceed against the Standard Oil Company and arraigned the three judges who reversed the $29,000,000 decision. Many people will believe that the president's action is only bluster and for political effect. Certainly before legal action can be had the elections will have been held.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, July 24.

Besides the eight West Point cadets of the first and second classes, who have been found guilty of hazing and whose dismissal from the academy has been unanimously recommended by a board of officers appointed by Superintendent Scott, it was learned today that twelve others are under arrest. The specific charge against all these cadets is insubordination. They are accused of hazing the plebes in such a fashion as to destroy discipline and in contravention of the rules of the academy. Up to two weeks ago the plebes were compelled by upper classmen to proceed at a riot when crossing the grounds. This was brought to the attention of the authorities and an order was issued by them directing to move at an ordinary pace. Thereupon the upper class issued another order to the plebes directing them to creep, which they did. This action brought matters to a crisis.

Dismissal from the navy is likely to be the punishment of Lieutenant Frank T. Evans, son of Rear Admiral Evans, if the reports from Honolulu, with reference to his alleged striking of Lieutenant Commander J. F. Carter are true. At the Navy Department today, it was said that the matter was one to be dealt with by Commander in Chief Sperry of the Atlantic fleet. No official report of the affair has yet reached the department. If the circumstances are as stated, Admiral Sperry will undoubtedly appoint a court martial to try young Evans forthwith. The striking of a superior officer, especially when on duty, is one of the most serious offenses covered in the navy regulations.

Capt. Thomas S. Baldwin, the noted balloon expert, who has contracted with the army signal corps for the delivery of a practicable dirigible balloon, arrived in Washington this morning with his air machine and proceeded about the preparations for putting it together. The balloon bag, car and paraphernalia occupied the entire space of an express car which was delivered near Fort Myer on a railroad siding.

A man in Chicago contributed today $240 to the conscience fund of the U. S. Treasury for duties he failed to pay.

The current receipts of the government since the opening of the current fiscal year on July 1 have declined about $6,000,000, as compared with the first twenty-three days of the fiscal year 1907.

Eugene Greene, colored, life guard at the bathing beach, will swim from Washington to Alexandria Sunday morning.

The Standard Oil Decision.

Chicago, July 24.—Attorney General Bonaparte and the attorneys representing the government in the prosecution in the Standard Oil cases probably will hold a conference in Washington following the public statement by President Roosevelt in the Grosscup opinion, U. S. District Attorney Sims believes this course will be followed and the advisability of the filing of a writ of certiorari with the United States Supreme Court will be discussed.

By asking for such writ the government attorneys would get the case in its present form before the highest tribunal and there would thus be a possibility of preserving Judge Landis' $29,240,000 fines. Having complete jurisdiction over the issues involved, the supreme court could reverse the circuit court of appeals.

James H. Wilkerson, special counsel in the Standard Oil cases, is looking up the record in the case and will probably report his conclusions to District Attorney Sims before Sunday.

Chauncey Martyn, counsel for the Standard Oil Company, today took issue with that part of President Roosevelt's statement which says there is absolutely no question of the guilt of the Standard Oil Company.

"As a matter of fact" he said, "there are intimations in the appellate courts opinion that the guilt of the Standard Oil Company, of Indiana, has not been established."

Judge Landis still declines to discuss the Grosscup opinion. He will leave tonight for six weeks outing in Michigan.

MUST PAY TAXES IN PERSON.

Judge Martin, of the court of law and chancery, of Norfolk, yesterday decided that "personal payment" of taxes means that, before a voter is qualified to vote, he must present himself "in the flesh" at the office of the treasurer and that payment by the agency of check or messenger is not payment under the law. Judge Martin said that a man could neither vote nor register by proxy, and he saw no reason why he should not go personally and pay his poll tax.

This disqualifies Judge Martin himself and half of the present electorate of Norfolk, including many citizens who sent their check or money by special messenger.

An appeal was taken to the Supreme Court. Forty days were allowed for the perfection of the appeal.

Judge Martin said the case was so important that the upper court should have it for hearing and decision at the September term in Staunton.

Should the decision be affirmed by the Court of Appeals large numbers all over the state will be disqualified. More democrats would be disfranchised than republicans.

EXTEND NIAGARA POWER.

Power generated at Niagara Falls is to be distributed all over Canada. Announcement was made at Pittsburg yesterday that bids had been asked on ten thousand tons of structural steel for the Canadian government. The steel is to be used for towers which will support the cables used in transporting the current. Already power generated at Niagara is being sent a distance of more than one hundred and twenty-five miles, and it is the intention of the Canadian government to increase this distance. Towns in every direction above Niagara will be supplied.

There was a riot in the Adams street police court in New York today when court officers and attaches of the District Attorney's office fought with fists and chairs for the possession of Martin Brawle, arrested yesterday at Brighton Beach race track for accepting wagers. Furniture was smashed, tables overturned and magistrate Tighe was unable to quell the disturbance. The trouble started when county detectives came to the court demanding that Brawle, who was waiting for a hearing prior to the court session, go with them before the grand jury.

Virginia News.

Miss Bettie Manuel, daughter of Isaac Manuel, a prominent farmer of Warren county, died on Wednesday of consumption, aged 16.

Rev. L. W. Pierce, pastor of Virginia Avenue Church, and Miss Pearl Riley, daughter of John M. Riley, were married at Bristol Wednesday.

Powhatan James, a young lawyer of Richmond, a native of Loudoun county and son of Rev. F. H. James, of Round Hill, has given up the practice of law and accepted the pastorate of the Baptist church at Nowata, Okla.

On Tuesday the large stock barn of Johnston Russell, a well-known horseman, near Aldie, was struck by lightning. The contents, consisting of large quantities of hay, other stores and farming implements were destroyed. There was some insurance, but not sufficient to cover the loss which is estimated at $4,000.

The colonial residence of R. C. Hopkins, four miles from Bedford City, in Bedford county, was struck by lightning yesterday afternoon during an electrical storm and burned to the ground. All the contents, including much old and valuable furniture and furnishings, were consumed. Several persons were in the house when it was struck, but they escaped with slight shocks. There was no insurance on the home.

Seven people were shocked and two were seriously injured by lightning at Forest Hill Park, near Richmond, yesterday. Mrs. J. G. Loving, wife of Dr. J. F. Loving, of Swansboro, and New Hooker, a bricklayer of the same town, were so seriously injured by the shock that they were taken from the park unconscious. The others injured were W. A. Bass, of Swansboro, slightly shocked through the left side; Rush Loving, the small son of Dr. Loving; Arthur Nunnally, of Manchester, and two small children, who were slightly shocked.

News of the Day.

The programme has been arranged for official notification of Taft on Tuesday next at Cincinnati.

Severe electric storms swept New York and New Jersey yesterday killing one person and doing considerable property damage.

Four men and one woman were yesterday injured in a panic at Pittsburg following the blowing out of a fuse on a street car.

Former Governor William L. Douglas, of Massachusetts, declares he would not accept the chairmanship of the democratic national committee.

James Florant Meline, assistant treasurer of the United States, died yesterday at his home, in Washington, from a complication of diseases.

Judge Grosscup, who is staying at the Waldorf at New York for a few days, denied last night that there was any truth in a statement published in Chicago yesterday to the effect that he would soon retire from the bench and become "a corporation lawyer."

Richard Croker, one time boss of Tammany Hall is to return to New York this fall according to a New York World special of today. While denying that he would take active part in the campaign for Bryan, Croker said that he hoped the Nebraskan would win and thought the chances good.

Judge Grosscup of Chicago who is one of the three jurists attacked by President Roosevelt for their reversal of Judge Landis' decision fining the Standard Oil Company, says the comment of the president does not disturb him and that there is no more reason why he should take notice of the comment of Mr. Roosevelt than he would that of any private citizen.

On the eve of their departure from Gettysburg for their homes, at least six men of the Pennsylvania National Guard were struck dead in one of the most severe electrical storms ever experienced on that historic battlefield about 10 o'clock last night. One of the bodies was severed in twain as though by a sword. A lieutenant of the Tenth regiment says that at least two-score persons were injured by lightning. The camp is flooded and the telegraph wires are prostrated.

President Roosevelt last night announced the determination of the administration to proceed with the prosecution of the Standard Oil case despite the decision adverse to the government handed down by the Circuit Court of Appeals on Wednesday. This decision, the president thinks, in no way effects the merits of the case, and he makes known his decision to cause the action to be bought again before the courts in such shape, if possible, as to prevent technicalities interfering with a decision based upon the actual issues involved.

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA LAW SCHOOL.

It has recently been ascertained that some misapprehension exists in the public mind relative to the proposed extension of the time required for the completion of the University of Virginia law course. It is understood by some that the new regulation, prescribing three years of residence work instead of two for graduation, will become effective in September of the present year; whereas, in fact, it will not become effective until September of 1909.

The splendid new home of the university law school, recently provided for, will be located on the left-hand side of the walk, just inside the postoffice entrance. Work of construction will probably be gotten well under way the coming fall.

The law library has just received a valuable donation from a distinguished gentleman of the north; a collection of about 350 volumes of English reports and statutes from 1865 to 1908, inclusive.

Last year (1907-08), with an enrollment of 288 students, the attendance of the law school surpassed that of all preceding years. Coincident with the extension of the residence period of study in 1908, the number of professors in the school will be increased to five. At present there are only three full professors, with an adjunct professor and two assistants.

Professor William Minor Lile, who has spent the past year on vacation in Europe, will return to the university early in August, and will resume his usual duties at the opening of the coming session, September 10. Adjunct Professor Armistead M. Dobie, who lectured to Professor Lile's classes last year with such notable success, will be retained as a member of the faculty.

The Holding Up Train.

Greensboro, N. C., July 24.—Baxter Shemwell, of Staunton, Va., formerly of Lexington, N. C., was arraigned before Justice Collins here yesterday afternoon under three warrants sworn out by officers of the Southern Railway, charging assault with a deadly weapon upon Conductor Smithers and Dr. Webb, of Rockingham; also with carrying concealed weapons. The prosecution grows out of the reported conduct of Shemwell, who is alleged to have forced Conductor Smithers, in charge of a train Tuesday, at the point of two pistols, to hold up his train at Lexington and let him get off. Shemwell declares that reports sent out of the occurrence were greatly exaggerated, and that he did not draw his revolvers until the conductor made an assault upon him with a ticket punch.

The case continued until Monday, and Shemwell gave bond.

The Shah's Troubles.

St. Petersburg, July 24.—The most desperate struggle that has yet taken place between the revolutionists and the shah's troops in devastated Tabriz is now being waged. Messages were received from Tabriz today telling of the musketry assaults between the loyalists and the nationalist mobs. The last report received said that the mobs were surrounding the soldiers of Rachin Khan and that the final disarrangement of his troops seemed imminent. Russia views the situation with the gravest apprehension. The revolutionists are desperate and rather than lose the present struggle, it is feared that they will attack the foreign population in order to force intervention. Fears are entertained for the safety of M. Pohitonoff, the Russian consul at Tabriz, who, according to last reports, is practically a prisoner of the revolutionists. Wire communication with Tabriz is now broken.

Hanged a Boy.

York, Pa., July 24.—Charged with attempting to hang her neighbor's son, Mrs. Rosa Abramson was arrested here last night. The woman, it is said, became angry at the lad and tied a rope around his neck and suspended him from the balcony at the rear of her home. Alexander Bair, while passing the house, heard the lad's screams and entered the yard just in time to cut the rope and prevent strangulation. The boy's face had begun to blacken when Mr. Bair entered the yard. Charges were preferred by the boy's father, A. Landsman. The lad who came so near to being executed is only six years old. It is said that Mrs. Abramson had been teased by the boys in the neighborhood of her home.

SENATOR FINDS SON.

After an absence of a little over four months, during which time he caused his parents considerable anxiety, William B. Rayner, son of United States Senator Isador Rayner, was conducted back to Baltimore Wednesday, as was stated in yesterday's Gazette, from Norfolk, by his father. In the party were Mrs. William H. Fisher, well known in Baltimore society, who is said to have been with young Rayner since he went away; Dr. Charles F. Bevan, dean of the College of Physicians and Surgeons in Baltimore, who accompanied Senator Rayner to Norfolk Tuesday night, and two attendants. It took all in the party to watch young Rayner and Mrs. Fisher while coming up Chesapeake Bay on the steamer Alabama.

Senator Rayner was notified that his son was in Norfolk, by some friends in that city. He left on the next boat and arrived there Wednesday morning. He found his son and Mrs. Fisher at the Hotel Fairfax, where they had been stopping since last Monday. That evening the senator engaged a suite of rooms on the Alabama, and just before the steamer sailed they boarded the steamer. Young Rayner was given a room two doors from Mrs. Fisher and two attendants remained with him. Mrs. Fisher was watched from the outside.

About 1:30 o'clock in the morning, after all the passengers had retired, a noise was heard in Mrs. Fisher's room, and one of the attendants saw her getting out of her stateroom window. Before he could reach her, she had climbed down upon the deck of the vessel. The attendant, who was in the room with young Rayner, saw her leaning over the railing and by leaning out the window he caught her by the arm. With the assistance of the other men, who had arrived, they pulled her bodily into young Rayner's room. She was sent back to her own room as soon as possible.

When the steamer landed at Baltimore a carriage was in waiting for the senator's party. The senator and his son, Dr. Bevan, and the attendants entered and went to the senator's country home on Sudbrook Park. Mrs. Fisher was left behind. She could not be located yesterday.

Young Rayner left Baltimore on March 16 last, while under the care of two prominent alienists. It was said Mrs. Fisher left at the same time.

After visiting various sections of the country, young Rayner went to Virginia and stopped with friends near his mother's former home, in King George county. From there he came to Alexandria and took a steamer for Norfolk.

Since Mrs. Fisher has been away, her husband, who was connected with a local brokerage firm, has applied for a divorce.

Senator Rayner thinks his son is mentally unbalanced, and is going to try and get him in some sanitarium.

MAY SAY "MR." AND "MRS."

Judge Sprunance, of the Superior Court, in Wilmington, Del., yesterday overruled the decision made by Judge Edwin R. Cochran in the Municipal Court a few days ago, to the effect that negroes should not be alluded to in his court with the prefix "Mr.," "Mrs." or "Miss" to their names. For persistence in doing this after being warned Judge Cochran imposed a fine of $5 on Christopher Brooks, colored, a witness in the court. In default of the fine Brooks was committed to the workhouse. In his opinion Judge Sprunance held that Judge Cochran had no more right to make such a ruling applicable to negroes in his court than he would have to make it applicable to foreigners. He ordered Brooks discharged from custody.

Nathan Straus, the New York philanthropist, who recently presented to Vienna a complete milk pasteurization plant, received an ovation today at the University of Heidelberg, where he lectured on the importance of purity in milk.

Today's Telegraphic News

Another Case for Judge Landis.

Chicago, July 24.—Federal Judge Kenesaw M. Landis, whose $29,000,000 fine upon Standard Oil was on Wednesday knocked out with caustic comment by the Court of Appeals, is to have another try at administering the provisions of the interstate commerce law. This time it is as to the anti-pass provision.

A grand jury, which has been on duty in Judge Landis's court since June 2, yesterday handed up an indictment charging the Illinois Central with ten offenses in granting interstate annual passes, and a similar indictment against the Rock Island road, charging eight offenses.

The Illinois Central is charged by the government with the giving of annual interstate passes, good over the entire system, to the Fruit Dispatch Company, a subsidiary organization of the United Fruit Company, in violation of section 1 of the act.

A violation of section 6 of the same act is charged also, alleging failure to state in the road's printed tariffs privileges which were granted to the United Fruit Company, which privileges consisted in allowing care-takers of fruit to use annual passes. Such passes, it is charged, were not given to other shippers, and thereby the company failed to observe the published tariffs governing the shipment of fruit.

In the Rock Island case it is alleged that the railroad furnished quarterly passes to employees of the Liebhardt Fruit Company, the Humprey Commission Company, the Lawrence Hensley Fruit Company and the Donaldson Howard Commission Company, all Colorado corporations.

Tragedy in Chicago.

Chicago, July 24.—Formal charges of murder today will be made against William T. Branitzky, 38 years old, a bed ridden invalid, who shot and killed Louis Sletten last night. The tragedy occurred in the Branitzky home in a fashionable residence neighborhood. Sletten, the victim, had caused previous trouble in the Branitzky household, in which Mrs. Branitzky left her husband. Shortly before Branitzky was stricken with tuberculosis of the spine the wife returned and Sletten was taken into the home as a roomer. When Sletten returned home last night, Branitzky, heard him quarreling with his wife in the kitchen. Mrs. Branitzky cried for help and rushed into the room where her husband was confined in bed with a plaster of paris cast about his body. Sletten followed and tried to drag her from the room when Branitzky reached under his pillow for his revolver and fired twice Sletten, with two bullets in his body, reeled from the room. When he fell at the foot of the stairs Mrs. Branitzky rushed out and fell prostrate over the body calling him to speak to her. After the shooting Branitzky, who formerly was a well known architect, said to a reporter: "You don't blame me for what I did, do you? He should have been killed by me years ago."

The Prince at Quebec.

Quebec, July 24.—On the Plains of Abraham where Wolfe and Montcalm fought out Canada's fate the Prince of Wales today reviewed the greatest body of troops ever assembled in the country's history. Practically the whole population of Quebec and the thousands of visitors present at the tercentenary saw 15,000 Canadian troops and 10,000 sailors from the British battleships pass before King Edward's heir. His appearance on the parade ground, with Lord Roberts, Earl Gray, the governor general; Vice President Fairbanks, Sir. Wilfred Laurier and a host of other notables evoked tremendous applause. These plaudits however, were small compared to the outburst when the pick of Canada's soldiery swept by the reviewing stand.

In the great throng which viewed the military display hundreds of persons dressed as in the day of champlain, ruffled as bravely as ever did their forefather. After the review the Prince of Wales and other dignitaries were escorted to the citadel where a great state ball will be given tonight.

In all the applause today no one was more heartily received than was Vice President Fairbanks.

Harry Thaw.

Poughkeepsie, July 24.—Harry Thaw is still denied any privilege in the Dutchess county jail and is being treated like an ordinary prisoner. Today when Dr. John A. Card, Thaw's physician, called at the jail to attend his patient, Sheriff "Bob" Chanler refused to allow him to see Thaw until the jail physician could be called in. The decision of Justice Moschauser dismissing the writ of habeas corpus for Thaw's release demanding the young millionaire back to Matteawan will be appealed. Today A. Russell Peabody, counsel for Thaw, served notice of appeal upon District Attorney Mack. The appeal will be argued in the fall, but will in no way interfere with the new move inaugurated by Thaw's new counsel, Charles Morschauser, for a trial by a jury to test Thaw's sanity.

Still at Large.

Boston, July 24.—The reign of terror that has existed in the southwestern portion of Boston and its suburbs since the wild west hold-up of last Tuesday night, is not yet ended. One of the desperadoes, at whose door is laid the death of two persons and the wounding of eighteen others, is still at large and hiding in the woods just outside of the city. Although some question was raised today regarding the identity of the man surrounded and shot by the police yesterday morning, it is generally accepted that he was the leader of the bandit trio and that Joseph Di Vico, arrested Tuesday night, was another member of the gang. The third man, however, escaped. The bandit still at large is said to be desperate and armed.

Names on Pretty Ankles.

Catskill, N. Y., July 24.—A new fad has started at Embogeht Lane. Misses Boardman, Sherman and Diamond, who are here on a vacation, while running through the woods near their boarding-house fell and each sustained a fractured ankle. The three limbs were encased in plaster of paris. Shortly afterward the first sympathizer to call on Miss Boardman tenderly placed the injured leg in her lap and pencilled her name on the plaster casing. The idea took and the plaster cast bears many names. Young men are not permitted to sign.

Storm Swept Camp

Gettysburg, Pa., July 24.—Three men of the Pennsylvania National Guard are dead in Camp Hays here today and more than a hundred are injured as the result of a terrific electric storm which broke over the state camp last night. Lightning killed three men, the body of one being split in twain.

Hundreds of visitors were in camp when the storm struck and the wildest panic and confusion prevailed as tents were torn to pieces. Division headquarters in which Governor Stuart was entertaining a company of friends went down in the first gust and the official and his guests were rescued with difficulty from a tangle of ropes and poles. None of them was seriously hurt. In an adjoining tent Miss Stuart, the governor's sister and some other women were in great danger and were only saved from injury by the work of the division officers who in the downpour and with flashes of lightning playing about them held down the tent by main force till the violence of the storm had passed. In all three hundred tents went down.

Preparations for departure of the second brigade were interrupted this morning so that services could be held over the bodies of the three dead soldiers. The services were attended by the Governor and Generals Hullings and Bowman.

After treating scores of Pennsylvania national guardsmen who were burned by lightning last night, surgeons today officially placed the blame of the fatalities and wounds on the new service legging which has a foundation of steel strips.

Political.

Chicago, July 24.—Chairman Frank H. Hitchcock, of the republican national committee, and temporary chairman Tom T. Taggart, of the democratic national committee, arrived in Chicago simultaneously today, both on political business bent. Taggart will arrange for the meeting between William Jennings Bryan, John W. Kern and the sub-committee of the democratic national committee tomorrow, during which a campaign manager and chairman of the national committee will be selected.

Hitchcock comes from Colorado Springs, where he has been conferring with western leaders. This meeting recommended that the chief republican headquarters be located in Chicago and Hitchcock is expected to select a site today. He will also arrange for a conference of republican national committeemen from the middle west to be held here either tomorrow or after Judge Taft's notification.

According to Mr. Taggart the democratic national headquarters will be in Chicago. Mr. Taggart declared the party was never as harmonious as now and predicted a big victory in November.

Governor Haskell, of Oklahoma, will probably be chosen as treasurer of the national committee; Urey Woodson, of Kentucky, as secretary, and Col. John I. Martin as sergeant at arms.

Fairview Farm, Lincoln, Neb., July 24.—Mr. Bryan left Lincoln for Chicago this afternoon in a very happy frame of mind. He has received assurances of support from men who in the past have fought him most bitterly. Chief of these is Conrke Cockran, of New York. Then Bryan has been promised active aid by Lewis Stuyvesant Chandler, of New York.

The Olympic Games.

London, July 24.—Following the disqualification of J. G. Carpenter, the Cornell University runner, for the alleged fouling of Halswell in the final of the 400 meter run yesterday, the Americans decided today not to compete in the re-running of this race tomorrow. The action of the Yankees mean that Halswell will have the empty honor of a walk over. The action of the American athletes shows how bitterly they resent the charges of fouling. There are but two days more of the meet. The net result will probably be that athletic relations between England and America will be severed for years to come.

The great Marathon race, the "classic" of every Olympic meet, was started from the east terrace of Windsor Castle this afternoon, the crown prince of Sweden giving the word that sent the eighty runners on their 26 mile grind. The English, American and South African runners were well bunched at the start. Dorando, of Italy, won the race. Hayes, of the United States, finished second.

The American A. U. have entered a protest against the victory of Dorando. The Yankees base their claim on the ground that Dorando was assisted to the finish.

In the team swimming race England defeated America.

London, July 24.—The protest lodged by the Yankees against Dorando, the Italian, who finished first in the Marathon race has been upheld. Hayes, of the United States, was declared the winner.

All Ogle Sheath Gown.

Willow Grove, Pa., July 24.—Visitors at Willow Grove Park yesterday were interested rather than startled when a real directoire gown made its appearance on the main walk and on the Midway, worn by a pretty and petite little brunette, who didn't seem to care a bit for the interest she created.

The gown was made of some filmy material in light blue, and followed every detail of the directoire, except that the opening in the skirt did not extend as far "north" of the skirt-hem as pictures indcate it should be.

New York Stock Market.

New York, July 24.—The tone of the stock market was generally reactionary all through the first hour. The trading element that took the bull side late yesterday was among the most urgent this morning assuming that the statement made by President Roosevelt in regard to the Standard Oil Company would for a time have a disturbing influence. The stock market continued to yield under pressure of stocks for both long and short account.

Murder and Suicide.

Louisville, Kentucky, July 24.—Philip B. Hans, jr., who yesterday killed Arthur W. Kraft, and shot Mrs. Kraft, killed himself by shooting himself through the head. The farmer driving along the road near St. Mathew's, a short distance east of Louisville, found the corpse today. He had shot himself several times and was lying beside the road in a heavy rain.

The Market.

Georgetown D. C., July 24.—Wheat 73-00.

The Turkish Parliament.

Constantinople, July 24.—The sultan issued an irade today authorizing the election of a parliament soon. This act is believed to be the forerunner of the granting of a constitution to the people which the sultan promised two days ago.

The constitution that was worked out for Turkey in 1876 will probably be revived. The sultan has elaborated this document until he announces that it will now fit modern conditions. The irade has been communicated to the Valis and the district lieutenant governors with instructions for holding the elections.

Garrison Mutinied.

Vienna, July 24.—The entire Turkish garrison at Uskub, in the vilayet of Kossei, 100 miles northwest of Salonica, mutinied today, according to a message received here. A force of loyalists is marching against the town in an effort to put down the rebellion.

The action of the Uskub is not surprising as the general disaffection sweeping over Macedonia had reached the soldiers. Five hundred soldiers are involved in the mutiny and nearly all of the civilian population.

Over Thirty-five Years.

In 1872 there was a great deal of diarrhoea, dysentery and cholera infantum. It was at this time that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was first brought into use. It proved more successful than any other remedy or treatment, and has for thirty-five years maintained that record. From a small beginning its sale and use has extended to every part of the United States and to many foreign countries. Nine druggists out of ten will recommend it when their opinion is asked, although they have other medicines that pay them a greater profit. It can always be depended upon, even in the most severe and dangerous cases. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

Italians Drowned.

Berne, Switzerland, July 24.—Twenty five Italian workingmen were drowned today in the Loetschberg tunnel when a flood of water from a subterranean river or lake filled the tunnel. The walls of the tunnel gave way before the rush of waters. The Kander river flows through the Alps above the tunnel at this point, and it is believed that the workingmen tapped it.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

An attempt was made last night to hold a meeting of the Board of Health, but a quorum failed to respond to the call The object was to determine the status of the board, the members of which, it is said, will endeavor to find out what their powers are, and will take an active hand in the effort to make Alexandria clean from a sanitary point of view.

Several years have elapsed since the City Council elected a Board of Health, but those who last composed the same claim they hold over until their successors are elected. Hence last night's action.

While those persons who have at different times devoted themselves to the duties incident to being members of the Board of Health deserve the appreciation of the community, it may be suggested that at the present time there is law enough, were it enforced, to keep the city in a sightly and sanitary condition. Under present laws every policeman is virtually a health officer, and as they are supposed to invade all sections of the city, if they exerted the power and responsibility vested in them there would practically be no need of a Board of Health, other than the Health Officer. Still, if the gentlemen who allege that they are still members of that body desire to vie with other officials in cleaning the city and keeping it clean, their action will be commendable.

AIRSHIP TESTS.

Capt. Thomas S. Baldwin, whose airship arrived at Fort Meyer Wednesday, is expected in Washington today to prepare his machine for the tests which will probably begin early next week. The Curtiss engine, especially built for Captain Baldwin, arrived yesterday.

Lieut. Benjamin D. Foulois, in command of the balloon squad at Fort Meyer, submitted his report on the preliminary arrangements for the tests to Brigadier General Allen, chief signal officer, yesterday. Lieutenant Foulois has laid out three courses, over any of which the trials may be held. These courses lie within a quarter circle southwest of Fort Myer. The prevailing winds in the locality where the test will be made are favorable to the aeronauts.

What is considered the best course in every respect lies southward five miles in the direction of Alexandria. Shooter's Hill at the southern end of the course, has an elevation of 160 feet and offers an excellent turning point for the aeronaut. The wide expanse of cleared country affords good landing places in case of necessity, and telephonic communication can easily be established with Fort Myer.

ANOTHER HEAVY RAIN.

The threatening condition of the heavens yesterday evening was followed toward the close of the day by a heavy downpour of rain which continued at intervals for several hours. Lightning was flashing almost incessantly during the time, and the roar of thunder was continuous.

The rain spread over a large area, nearly every section of Maryland having been visited by the storm, while it extended to places in Pennsylvania. But little damage was done in the immediate neighborhood, but in other sections of the state and in Maryland the damage was considerable.

The heat has but little abated. When the rain first began to fall yesterday the mercury dropped from 90 to 86, but got up to 88 before six o'clock. This morning at eight o'clock the mercury stood at 79° and by noon it had risen to 87°, with intense humidity.

MAGISTRATE'S COURT.

W. M. McCray was before Justice Haislip at "Belmont," Fairfax county, on Wednesday, charged with allowing his cattle to trespass upon the premises of John S. Beach. The fine and costs amounted to $4.40.

George Quander, colored, was before Justice W. T. Heistand, in Fairfax county, yesterday, charged with assaulting and beating Simeon Deavers, white. The victim of the assault by reason of his injuries, could not attend the trial, and it was postponed. It is alleged by Quander that Deavers set his clothing afire with burning straw, and provoked the assault. Deavers' condition is said to be critical.

The arrests were made by Constable Payne.

BUILDING OPERATIONS.

The dullness of the past few months has given away to activity in building operations and the horde of workmen who used to congregate on the different corners are pursuing their avocations, the result of a number of buildings in course of construction and others being repaired. The buildings being constructed by Messrs Garrett and Monroe on Oronoco street, between Washington and Columbus, are nearly completed and greatly improve that section of the city.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning.

George Carter, colored, charged with assaulting Viola Jackson, also colored, was fined $10.

Henry Foster, colored, charged with drunken and disorderly conduct, was fined $10.

Mary Ball, colored, charged with using abusive language toward Mary Majors, also colored, was dismissed.

UGLY CHARGES.

About 10:30 last night a woman appeared at the station house and reported to the authorities that her husband, Lutner Muse, an employee of the Schlitz beer establishment in Washington, had insulted on her and her two children taking a trip to Smith's creek, promising a state room and other necessary conveniences. She said that when she arrived at the wharf she was placed aboard an old hulk of a vessel which was unclean and was filled with a cabin about 7 feet long by five wide in which there were already the captain, two boys, and a young girl. Her husband and the captain, she said, proceeded to get drunk and were in that condition on arriving at Alexandria. She demanded her satchels and was refused, whereupon she left the boat and asked the police to get her belongings. Officers Gill and Young went to the wharf but could not get in the cabin of the boat, whereupon they forced the cabin open and took the baggage and placed the woman and two children on the 11.50 train. The vessel is owned by Captain Finley and is named the Hattie Elizabeth. While at the station house she made some ugly charges against the captain in which his children figured. Today the husband of the woman and the captain of the boat appeared at the station house and complained of the action of the officers in breaking into the cabin of the boat, saying they could have secured the woman's belongings without using force. No action was taken concerning the men's protest.

IMPROVEMENTS.

The Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company are having constructed an office and waiting room on the Prince street wharf. The building of this addition is intended for a dual purpose—the first for the convenience of passengers and the second to keep off the wharf at night the large number of people who congregate there, much to the inconvenience of the men loading the freight. The work is in the hands of Contractor Julian D. Knight.

The old wharf on the strand between Prince and King streets leased by T. F. Burroughs, Son & Co. is being repaired and will greatly improve the appearance of things in that vicinity.

CONTRACT SIGNED.

The contract for the erection of the new school building, which was awarded by a special committee of the City School Board to Messrs. George Leigh & Bro., of Louisa, the lowest bidder, was signed today and, it is understood, work will be commenced next week. The contractors, it is said, will employ Alexandria mechanics and laborers in the erection of the building, but will buy most of the material elsewhere.

RIVER NOTES.

The scow Farmer's Friend, Captain John Sisson, left for Fort Washington today loaded with soft coal by W. A. Smoot & Co.

DRUNKEN NEGRO FINED.

Henry Foster, colored, a member of the chain gang, managed to procure liquor yesterday from which he became very drunk. He attacked Overseer Harrington and Officer Henderson had to be summoned to arrest the negro. Foster was brought before the Police Court this morning and fined $10.

EXCURSION POSTPONED.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather, the excursion to have been given yesterday evening on the steamer Jamestown, under the auspices of the Elks' Dramatic Club, was postponed until next Tuesday. Tickets sold for the excursion will of course hold good for the 28th.

NEW BOAT.

A handsome pleasure boat, 27 feet in length and 8 feet beam, built by K. Oheseltine near Colton's wharf, was brought to this city yesterday. It was built for Mr. Joseph Dreifus. Mr. Oheseltine is also building one for Mr. Thomas Waddey, of this city.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.

During the fierce storm which prevailed last night a valuable cow owned by Mr. R. D. Woolf, at Braddock Heights, was killed by lightning. Considerable damage was done to trees and vegetation.

BARN BURNED.

The barn at Fairfax station belonging to Mr. John Hammell was struck by lightning last night and with its contents was burned. In the barn were a quantity of grain, hay, farming implements, four horses and two calves, all of which were destroyed.

Our Ham Talk

No. 2,

The mere fact that a ham is a part and parcel of a pig doesn't signify that ALL hams are alike. I simply want to tell you the difference between the "Auth" and the common brands.

The great majority of pork packers never care a rap about what kind of pigs they buy or what they have been fed on. The price is their first and only consideration.

Now the Auth Method is Different.

Mr. Auth personally looks after this department of the business and never under any circumstances buys a pig that has been fed on anything but corn or grain. He is mighty particular about his pigs being CLEAN.

Therefore

When you purchase an "Auth" ham you're getting meat that is sweet, clean and wholesome. Something that wont make you sick, because they're ABSOLUTELY PURE in every particular.

Longest Will on Record.

What is called the longest will on record is that of Captain Robert Keayne, founder of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Boston.

It contains about 50,000 words. Printed and bound, it would make a good sized volume, comparing favorably in length with many a novel of the present day.

In its voluminous proportions this will is in striking contrast to one probated in New Orleans a number of years ago, in which the testator disposed of its earthly possessions in five words—namely, "Mistress Toper is my heiress."

The original of Captain Keayne's will is carefully preserved in the vaults of the register of probate of Suffolk county. In volume 1 of the record of wills probated it covers 140 pages, and it is recited in the will that the document was drawn up in the handwriting of the testator.

While Captain Keayne, who was originally a merchant tailor in London, left a fortune of fair proportions for his day, it is of interest to note that at the present day fortunes of millions of dollars are frequently disposed of in complicated trusts by only a few hundred words.—Boston Post.

Chivalry and Fatness.

Have you never noticed that great personal bulk and chivalry go almost always together? Well, they do, and I am reminded of a circumstance that happened long years ago. There was in congress from the state of Alabama a gentleman named Dixon Lewis. He was notorious for his stoutness as well as for his courtliness and abilities. This gentleman was a Virginian by birth, but removed early to Alabama, which state he represented during several terms of congress and was in the senate at the time of his death in 1848. Biographers relate of him that one time after the adjournment of congress he was on his way home in a steamer that was wrecked and while he had an opportunity to do so refused to take a seat in a small boat because his great weight would jeopardize the lives of others in the boat, and, although for a time he was in great danger, he was at last rescued. There was a noticeable combination of chivalry and fatness.—Washington Post.

Famous Epicures.

In the ceiling of the dining room in Nero's "golden house," on the Palatine hill, were compartments inlaid with ivory which revolved, showering perfumes and flowers on the guests. Flowers were presented to the guests by slaves. They were crowned with wreaths. Usually after one course the tables were removed and others placed before the guests. Throughout the meal drinking continued until the banqueters fell under the table stupefied. In those days men lived to eat. Great generals spent fortunes accumulated in years of warfare in gratifying their appetites. Lucullus on one dinner with Cicero and Pompey spent 50,000 drachmas, or $7,000. Pithylus, who was famed for the delicacy and originality of his dinners, wrapped his tongue in linen when not using it. That he might better appreciate flavors of the viands he had it cleaned with fish skin before dining.

Earthquakes as Warnings.

The belief that earthquakes are signs or warnings owes its origin in part to prophecies in the Bible, where, for example, we read that "there shall be famines and pestilences and earthquakes" as portending future calamities. Earthquakes have led to the abolition of oppressive taxation, the abolition of masquerades, the closing of theaters and even to the alteration of fashion. A New England paper of 1727 tells us that "a considerable town in this province has been so far awakened by the awful providence in the earthquake that the women have generally laid aside their hooped petticoats."—Nature.

Rule of Three.

"Well," said a persevering governess, "I will put it in another form. If it takes one servant nine hours to do the entire housework of a family how long will it take three servants to do it?"

Tommy — Oh, I know, teacher. I heard mamma speak of it only this morning.

Governess—Well, how long will it take them?

Tommy—Three times as long.—London Tatler.

Treason and Reason.

Archbishop Ryan once concluded a brilliant defense of the Irish cause when a listener shouted:

"But the Irish are guilty of treason."

"Perhaps," replied the archbishop, "but please remember that what is treason elsewhere becomes reason in Ireland because of the absentee."—Cleveland Leader.

Getting Along.

Miss Goodley—Miss Hussle goes in for everything. She's constantly doing something. Miss Knox—Yes, but the one thing she is doing most steadily she won't admit. Miss Goodley—What is that? Miss Knox—Growing older.—Catholic Standard and Times.

Too Much of It.

Greene—How does it happen that you don't trade at Cleaver's any more? You used to brag about the nice cuts of meat he always sent you. Is it because he wouldn't give you credit? Gray—On the contrary, it is because he did.—Boston Transcript.

Tommy's Lesson.

Tommie—But, mamma, fingers were made before forks. Mamma—Yes, my boy, and dirt was made before pie, but you prefer pie, don't you, Tommie?—Yonkers Statesman.
